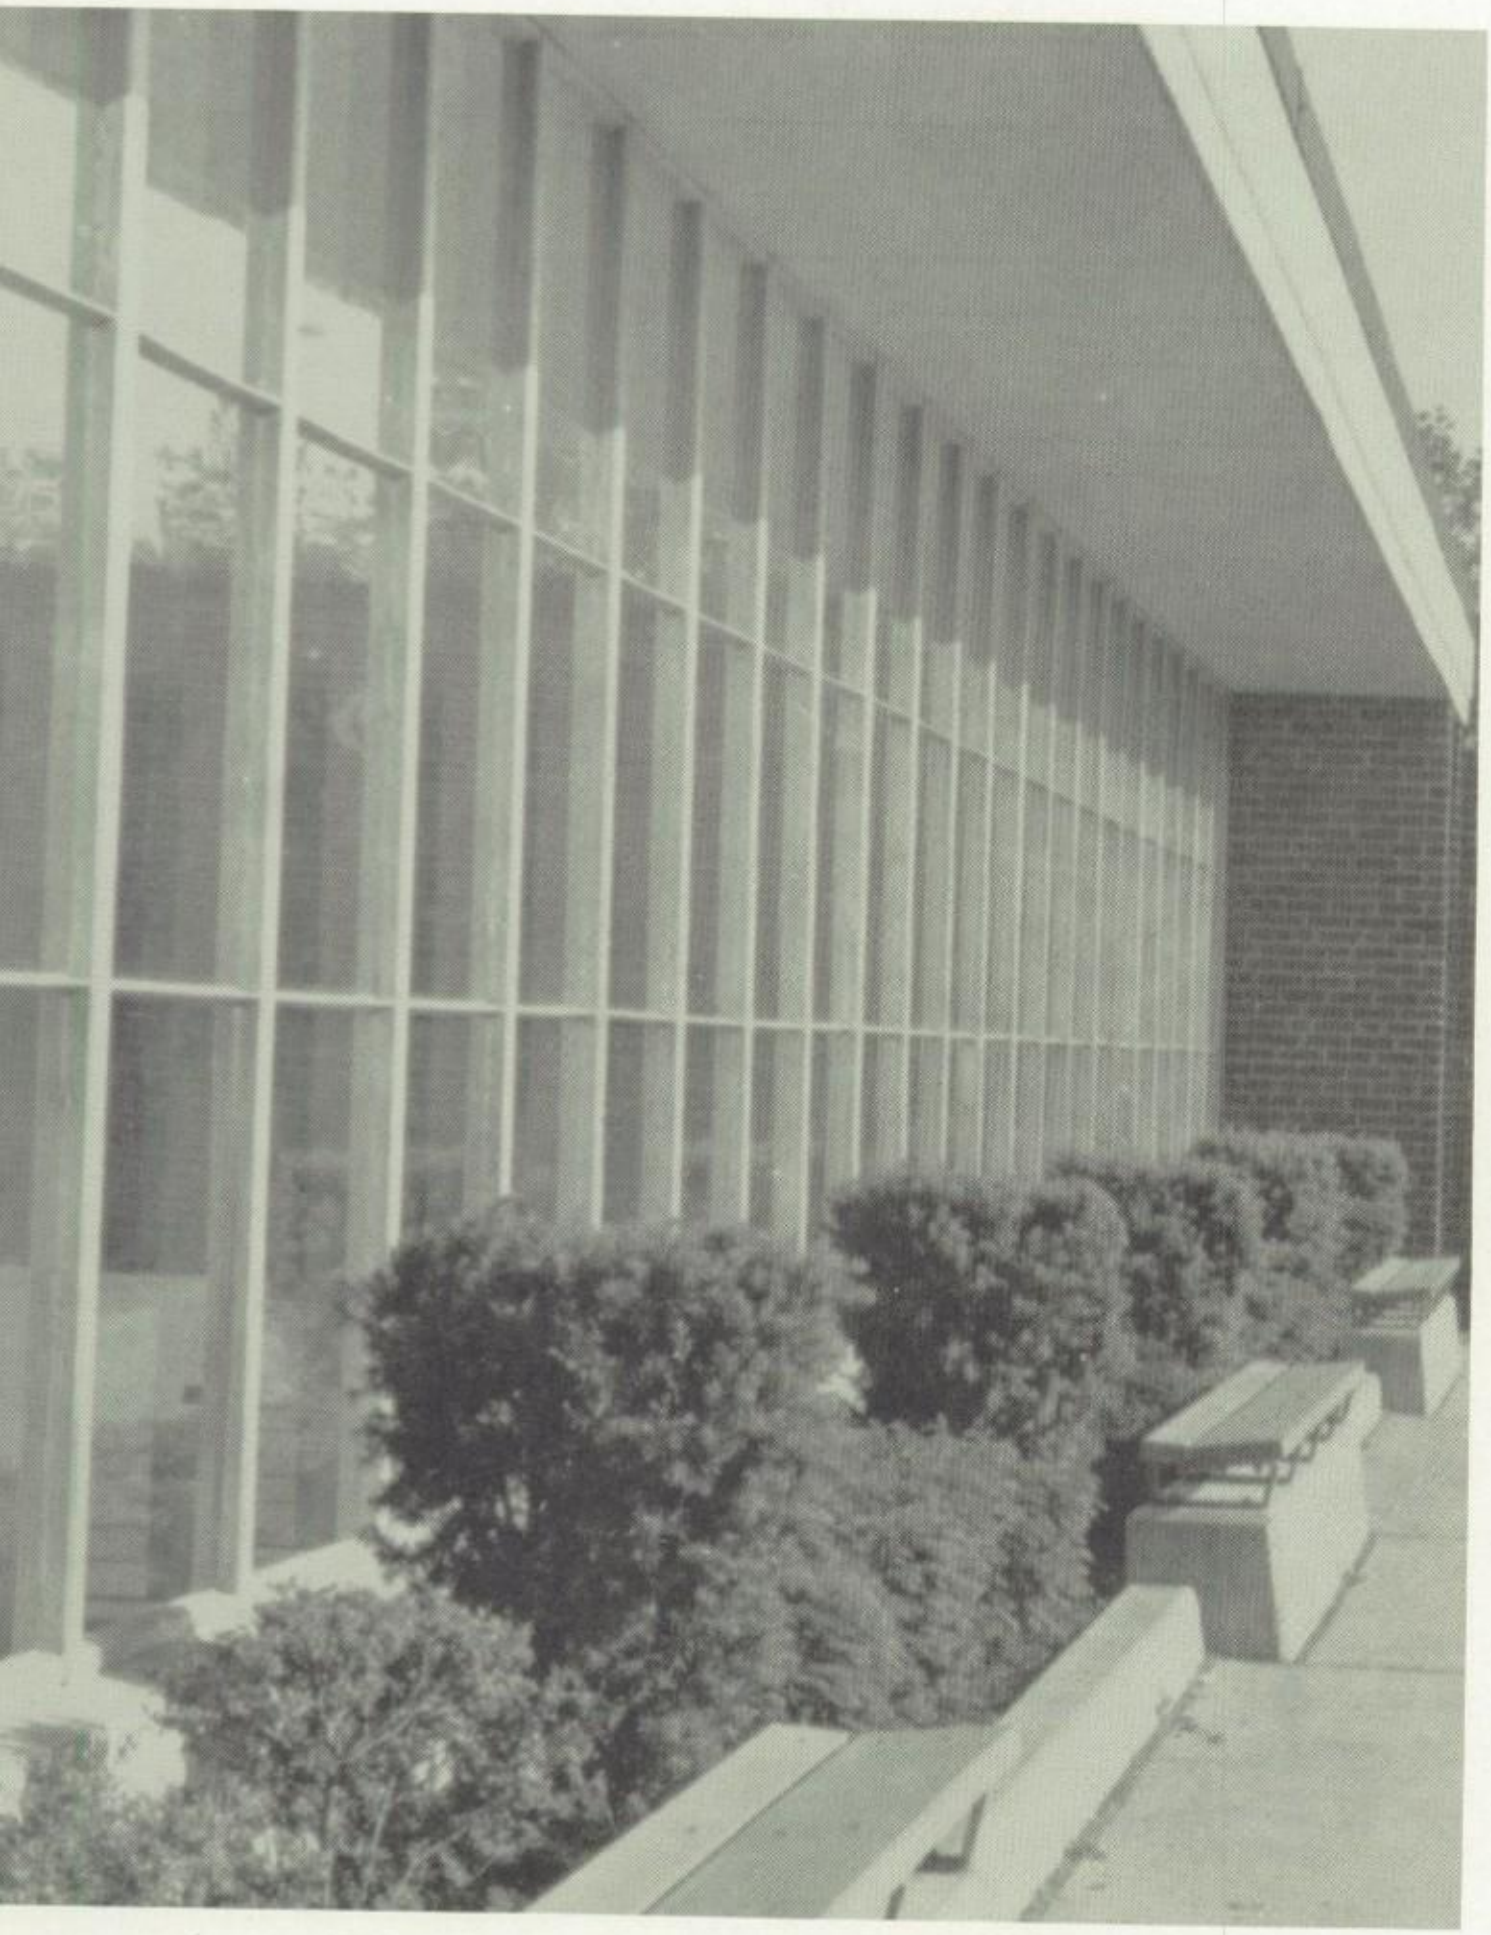
DAZE IN REVIEW

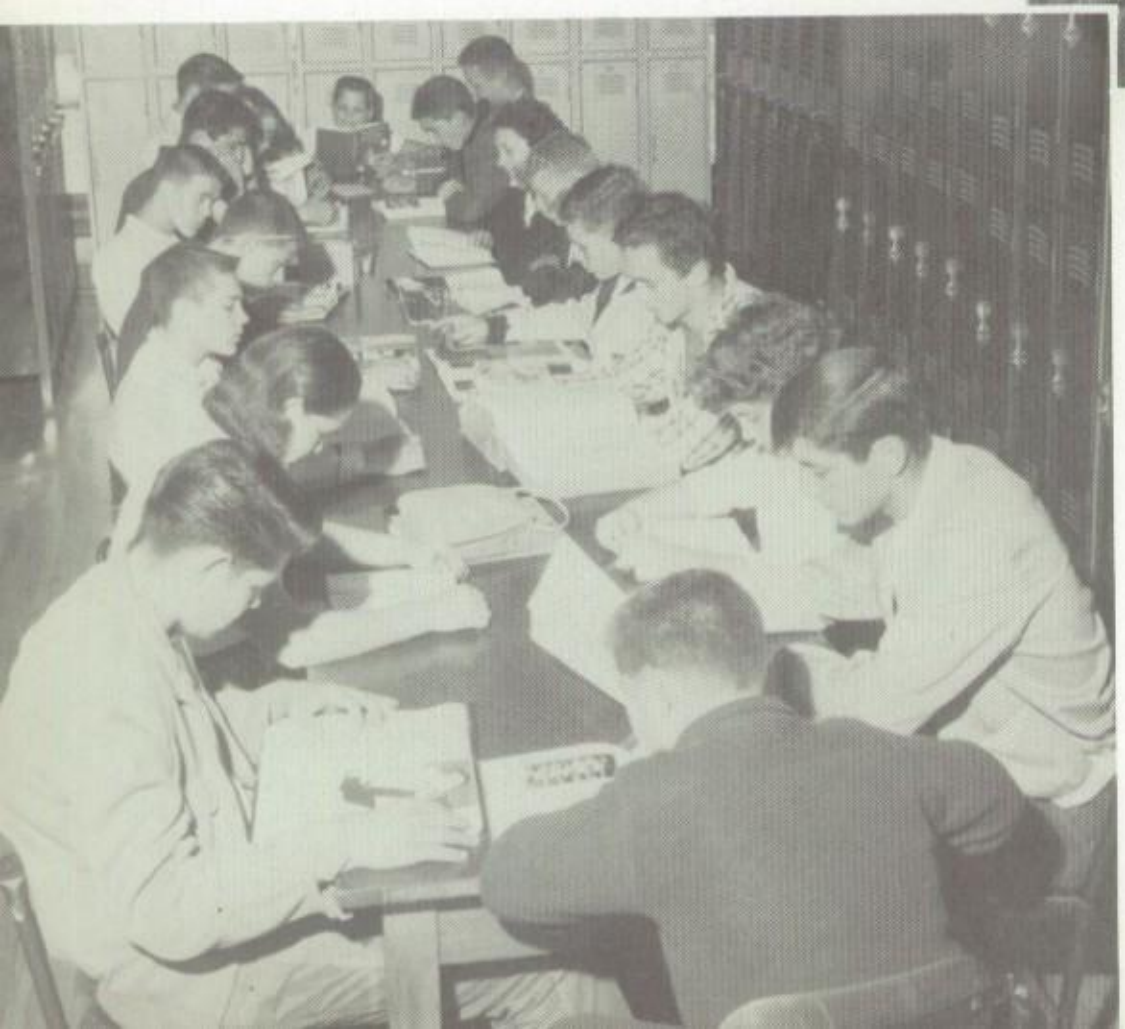


In the 1961 CONCORDIAN we present a picturesque view of our school and a glimpse of our life at Concord High School. Through these pages we review the year of "OUR HAPPY CAREFREE DAZE."

NEW AT

These paint cans symbolized the new face lifting our buildings have received.

The parking lots were blacktopped this year to improve our parking area.



The library was expanded to take care of the students of our ever-growing school.

Some of the new teachers at Concord are from left to right, Mrs. Rhoade, Mrs. Heckner, Mr. Huneryager, Mr. Roth, Mr. Harmeson, Mr. Murray, and Mr. McKean.

SUMMER DAZE

There were twenty-eight students in the personal typing class. This class was taught by Mr. Hartzler.

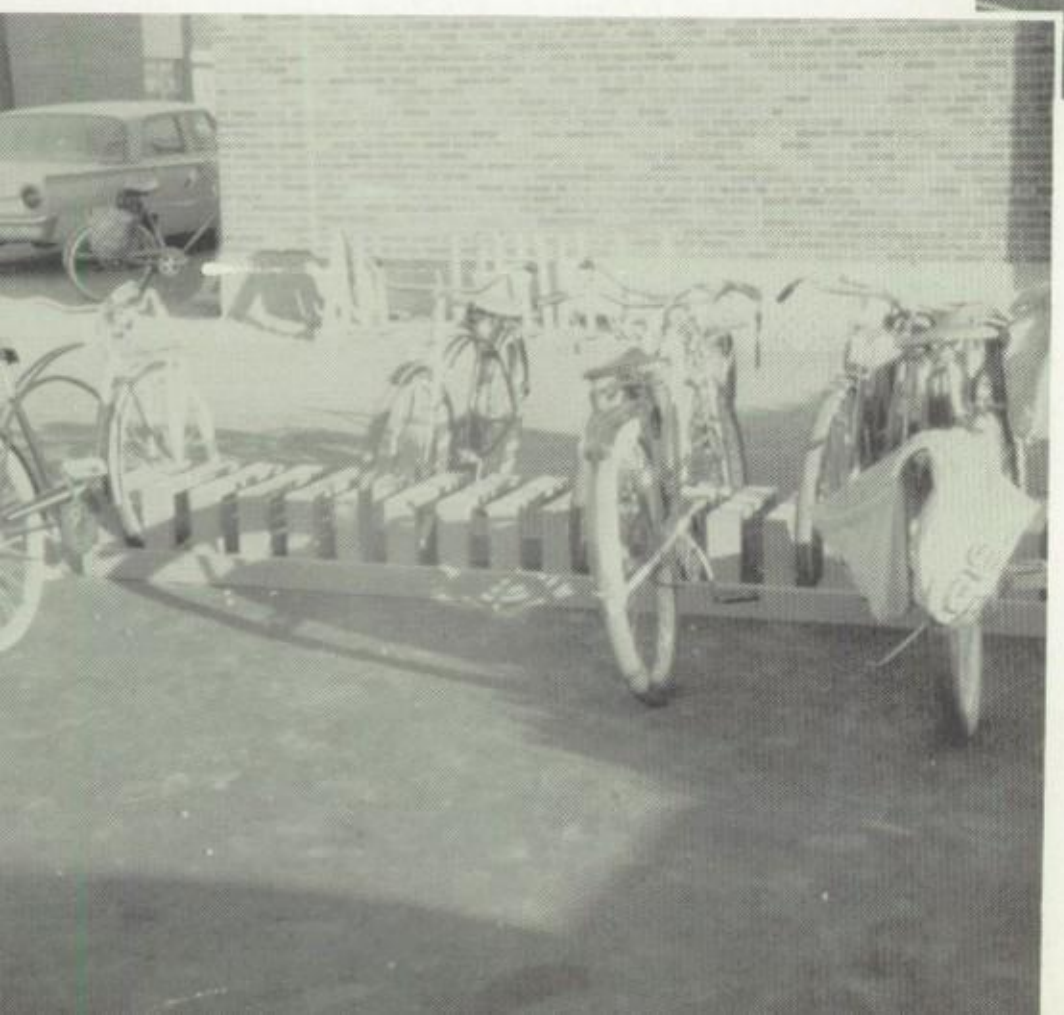
Speed-reading was found to be very interesting by the twenty-one students who were in this class taught by Mr. Kilmer. Here Martin Bell demonstrates a speed-reading machine.

Mr. Gwaltney taught twenty-one students enrolled in the drivers' training class this summer.

RIDING DAZE

Buses are the most popular form of transportation to and from school.

Every day our lot is filled with cars driven by students and teachers.



Some students ride their bicycles to get to and from school.

STARS SHINE

OUR CLASSES PREPARE US FOR THE DAZE AHEAD

MASTERING OUR LANGUAGE

Members of the first period radio workshop wait for the cue from the technician to begin the radio broadcast heard over station WKAM. LEFT TO RIGHT: Nancy Mitchell, Dennis Parker, Carol Broadbent, Chuck Roe, Kay Bowers, Tom Weiner, Betty Leininger, Kathy Kauffman, Ron Cannon, Sue Stevens, and Ron Iwema.

Mr. Kilmer directs the Friday broadcast over WCMR. The students are Carl Kreider (at controls) Mr. Kilmer, Judith McCormick, Elizabeth Hershberger, Marla Lovejoy, Steve Bourn, Karol Emerson, Fred Eller, Sheryl Osborn, Bonnie Stark, and Linda Housman.

IS AN ACCOMPLISHMENT

etty Leininger makes a humorous nterpretation of "Life with Father".

Seniors, who write semester term papers, spend a great deal of time in the library doing research.

nthony Moore delivers an extemoraneous speech before his class.

Mr. Hathaway teaches Literature to this class of eighth grade students.

a first year speech student, Jo len Zook renders a dramatic inrpretation.

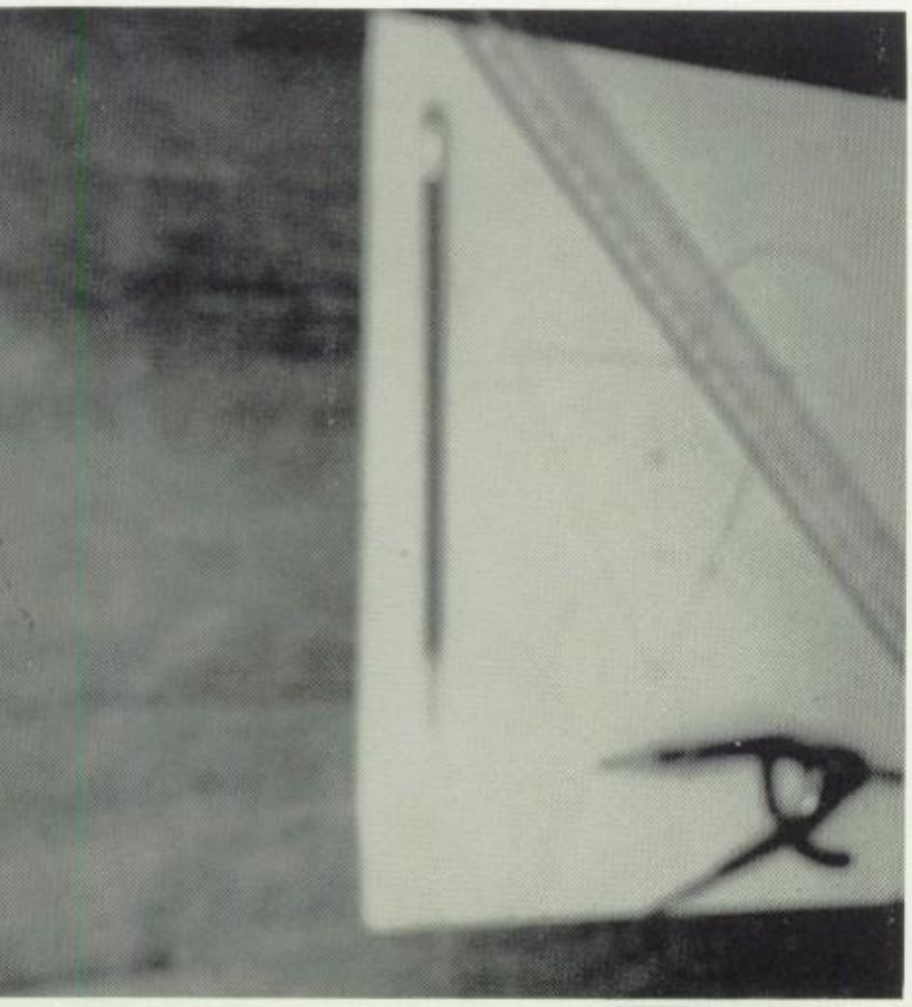
Mrs. Heckner endeavors to make English interesting to this class of sophomores.

A FOREIGN FLAVOR IN OUR STUDIES

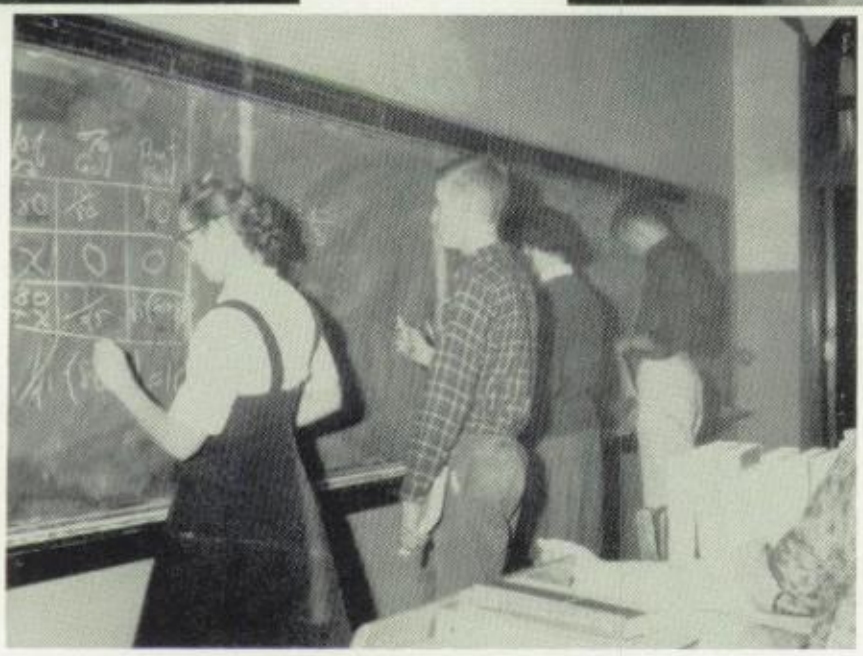
Jennifer Lee and Vicki Swoveland demonstrate the draping of a Roman toga on their model, Delores Masten.

French students assume a foreign air. Here Darko Rapotez, Cindy Miller, Dennis Malloy, and Jana Harmon, and their teacher, Mrs. Kasamis smile for the birdie.

THE MAGIC OF NUMBERS

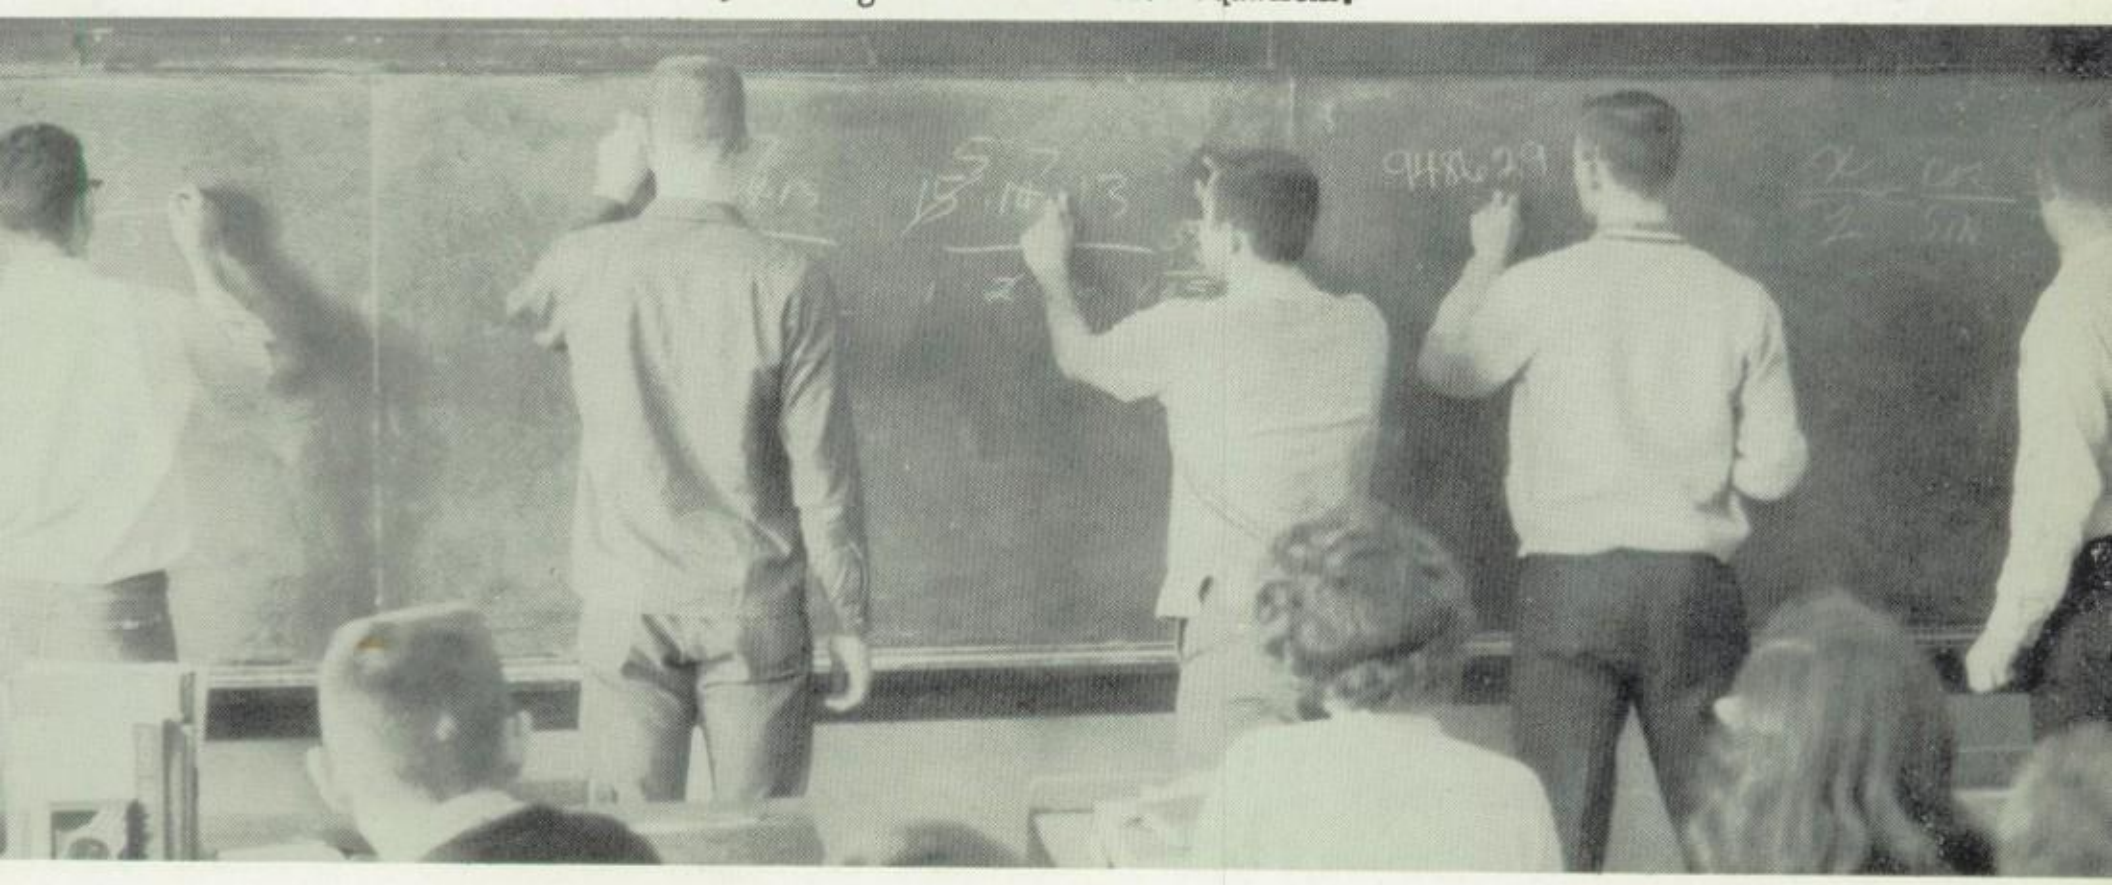


Tools obey the orders of the mind. Every math student comes in contact with these aids to calculation.



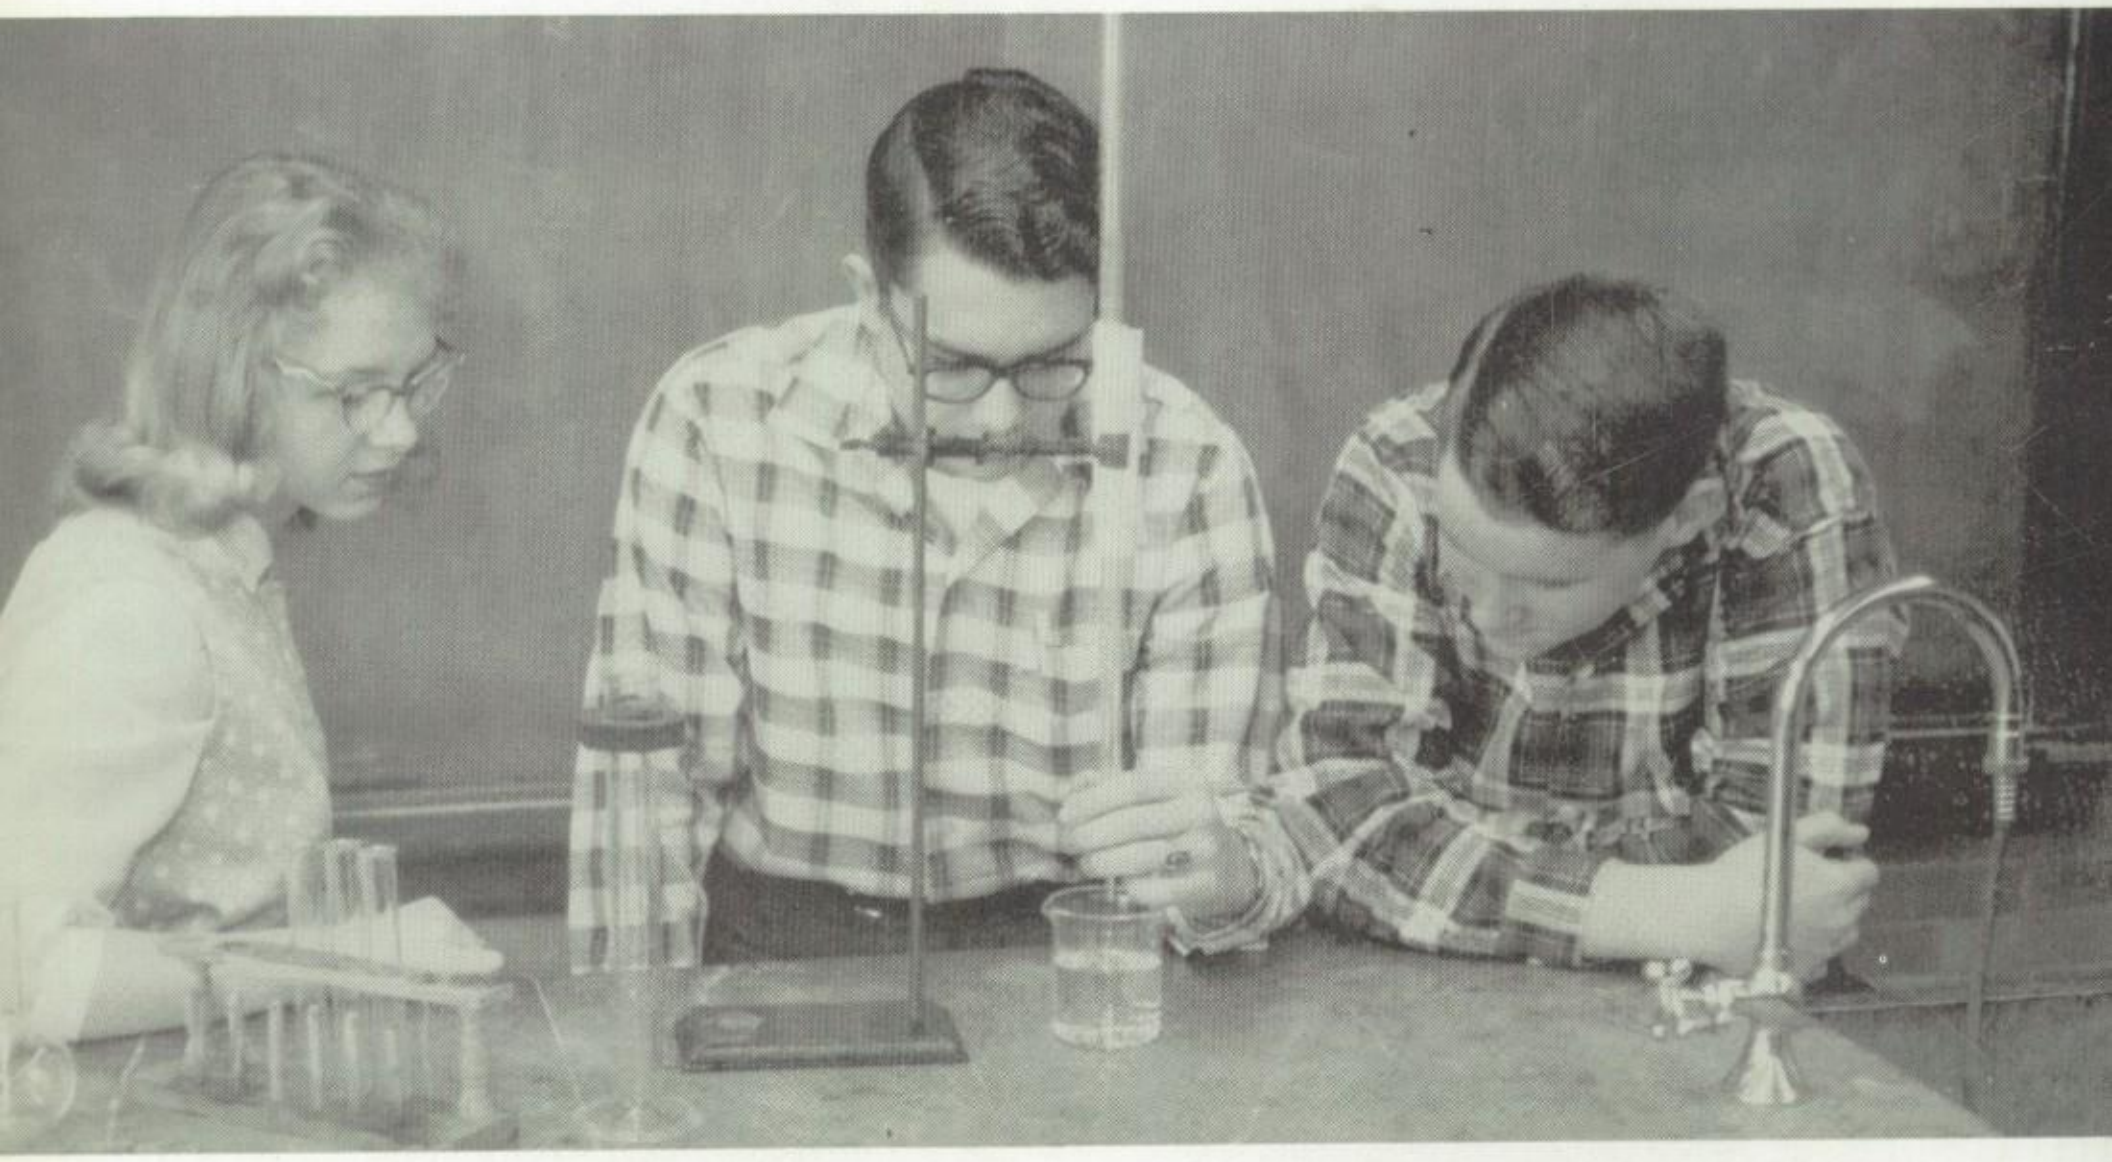
Junior algebra students solve equations.

Carl Kreider and Charles Roe demonstrate their mathematic ability to Sally Young by pointing out the fundamentals of the slide rule.

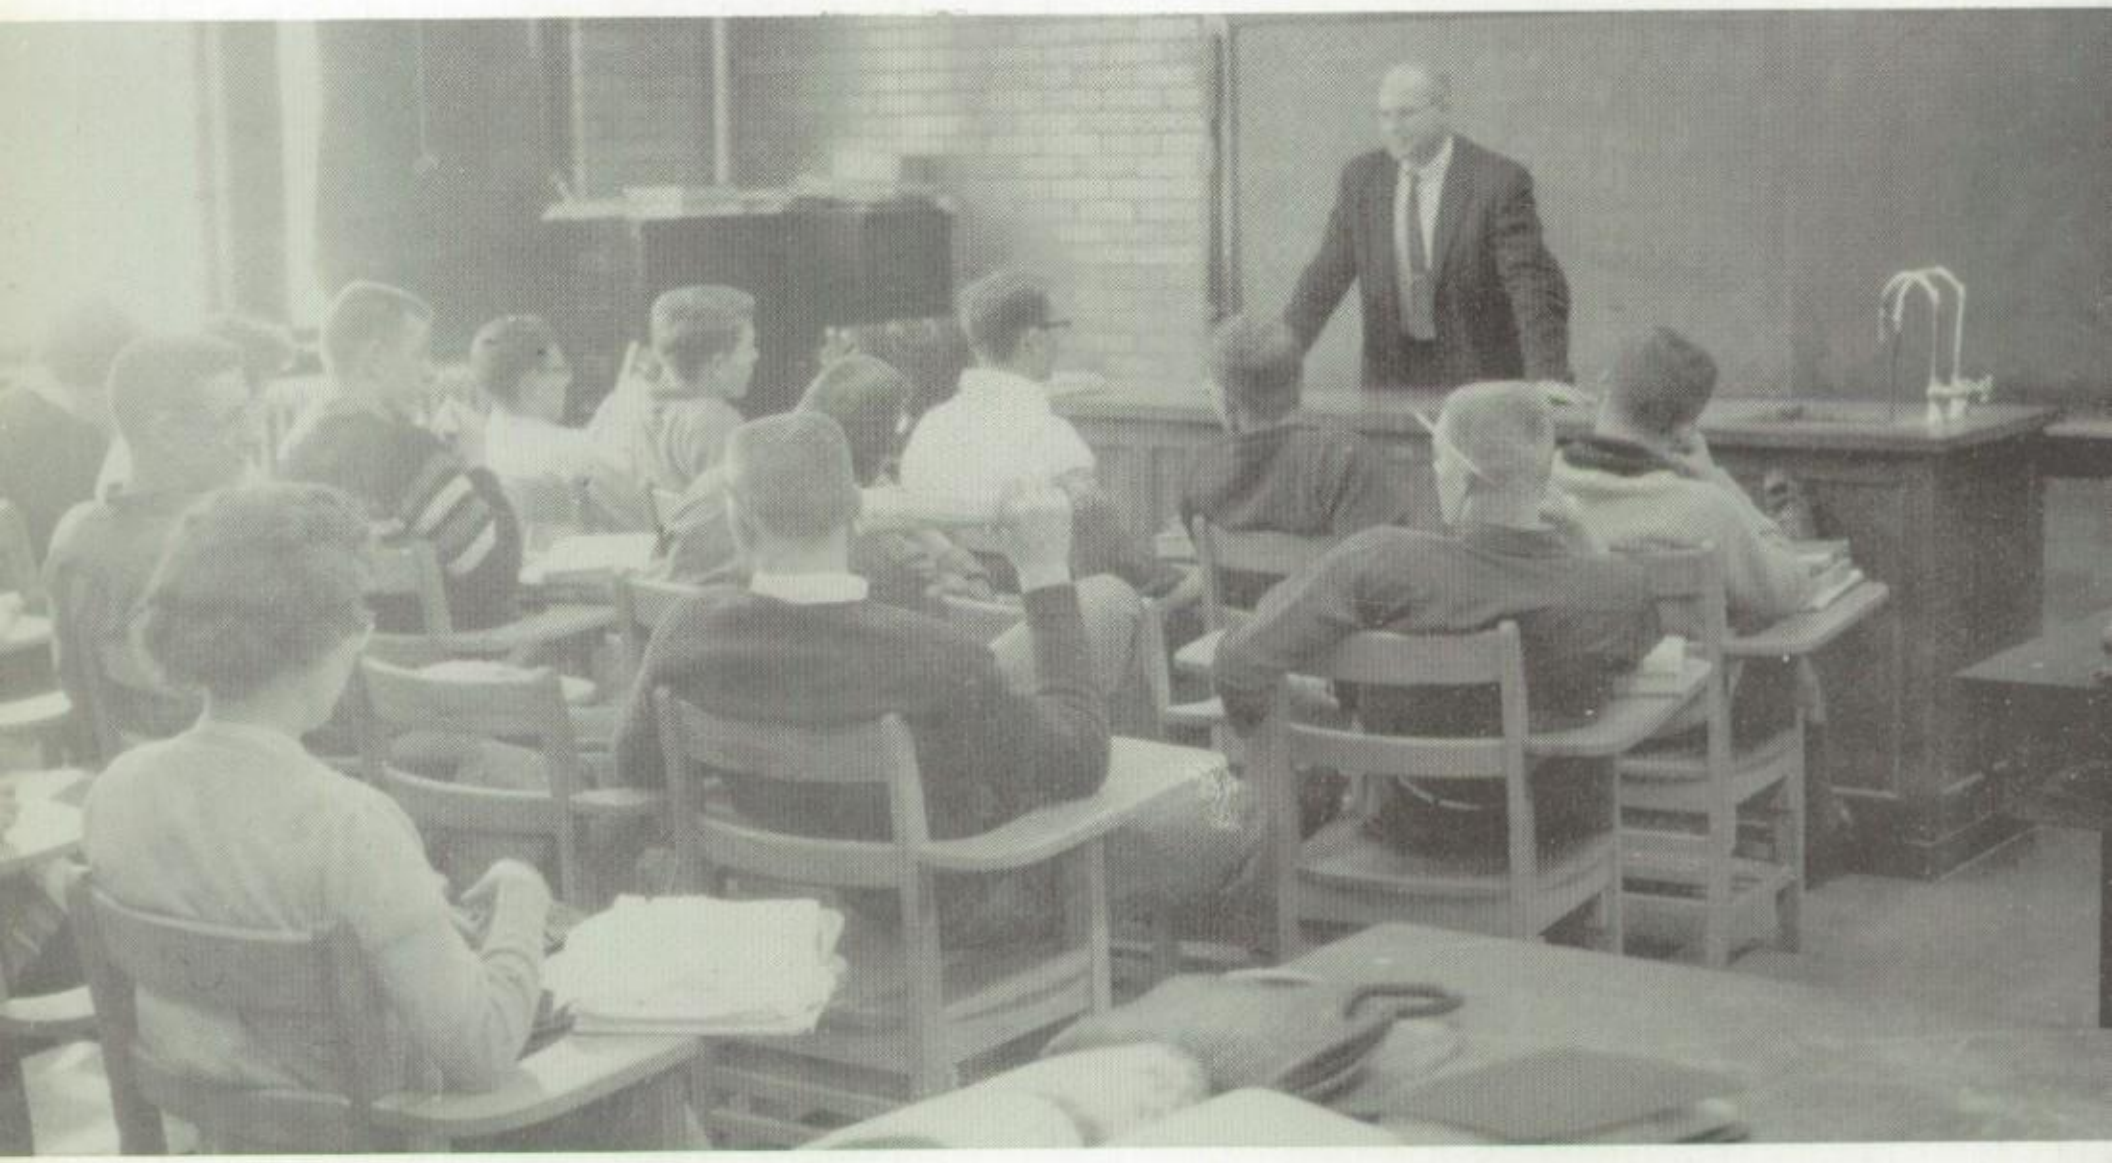


A regular feature of senior math class is the weekly board drill. Students concentrate on building speed and skill..

CONCORD'S MODERN SCIENCE



Another year of Chemistry classes have gone by and the chemistry lab is still intact. Here Martha Inbody and Don Currier watch Jim Barrett work on an experiment.



Mr. Gwaltney, our assistant principal, teaches only one class this year. Here he lectures his senior physics class on the movement of sound and light waves.

CLASSES INSPIRE FUTURE SCIENTISTS

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS LEARN

Barbara Chiddister, Lavelle Larimer, Sharon Eby, and Nancy Perry experiment with the sewing machine.

Tecia Carter, Sharon Miller, Helen Clark, and Ruby Hostetler watch the progress of the food cooking on the stove.

Members of the eighth grade home economics class listen attentively as Mrs. Blood points out valuable instructions.

SKILLS OF COOKING AND SEWING

Eighth grade girls model the skirts which they made. They are Diane Mayou, Sharon Mast, Theo Baker, and Sally Drake.

ne members of the Junior Home Economics class learn be successful hostesses.

The Senior girls display with pride the results of their culinary efforts.

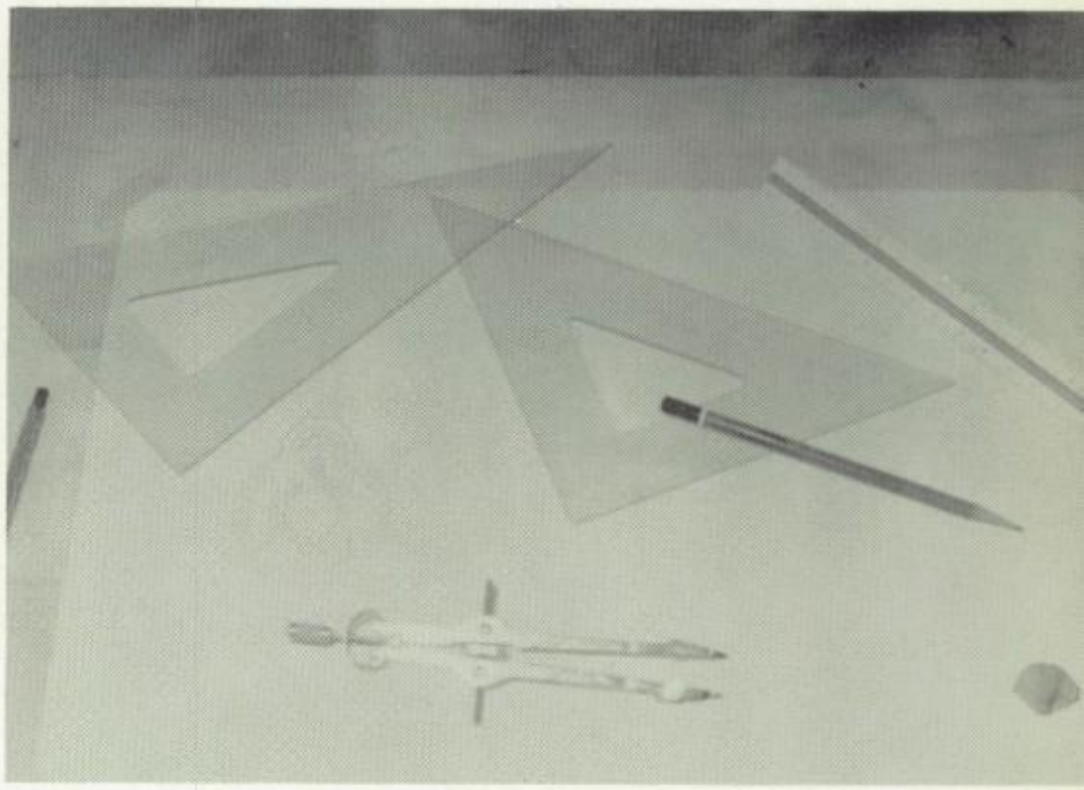
VOCATIONAL CLASSES PREPARE

The technical intricacies of motor repair find rapt attention from Fred Wright and Alton Love.

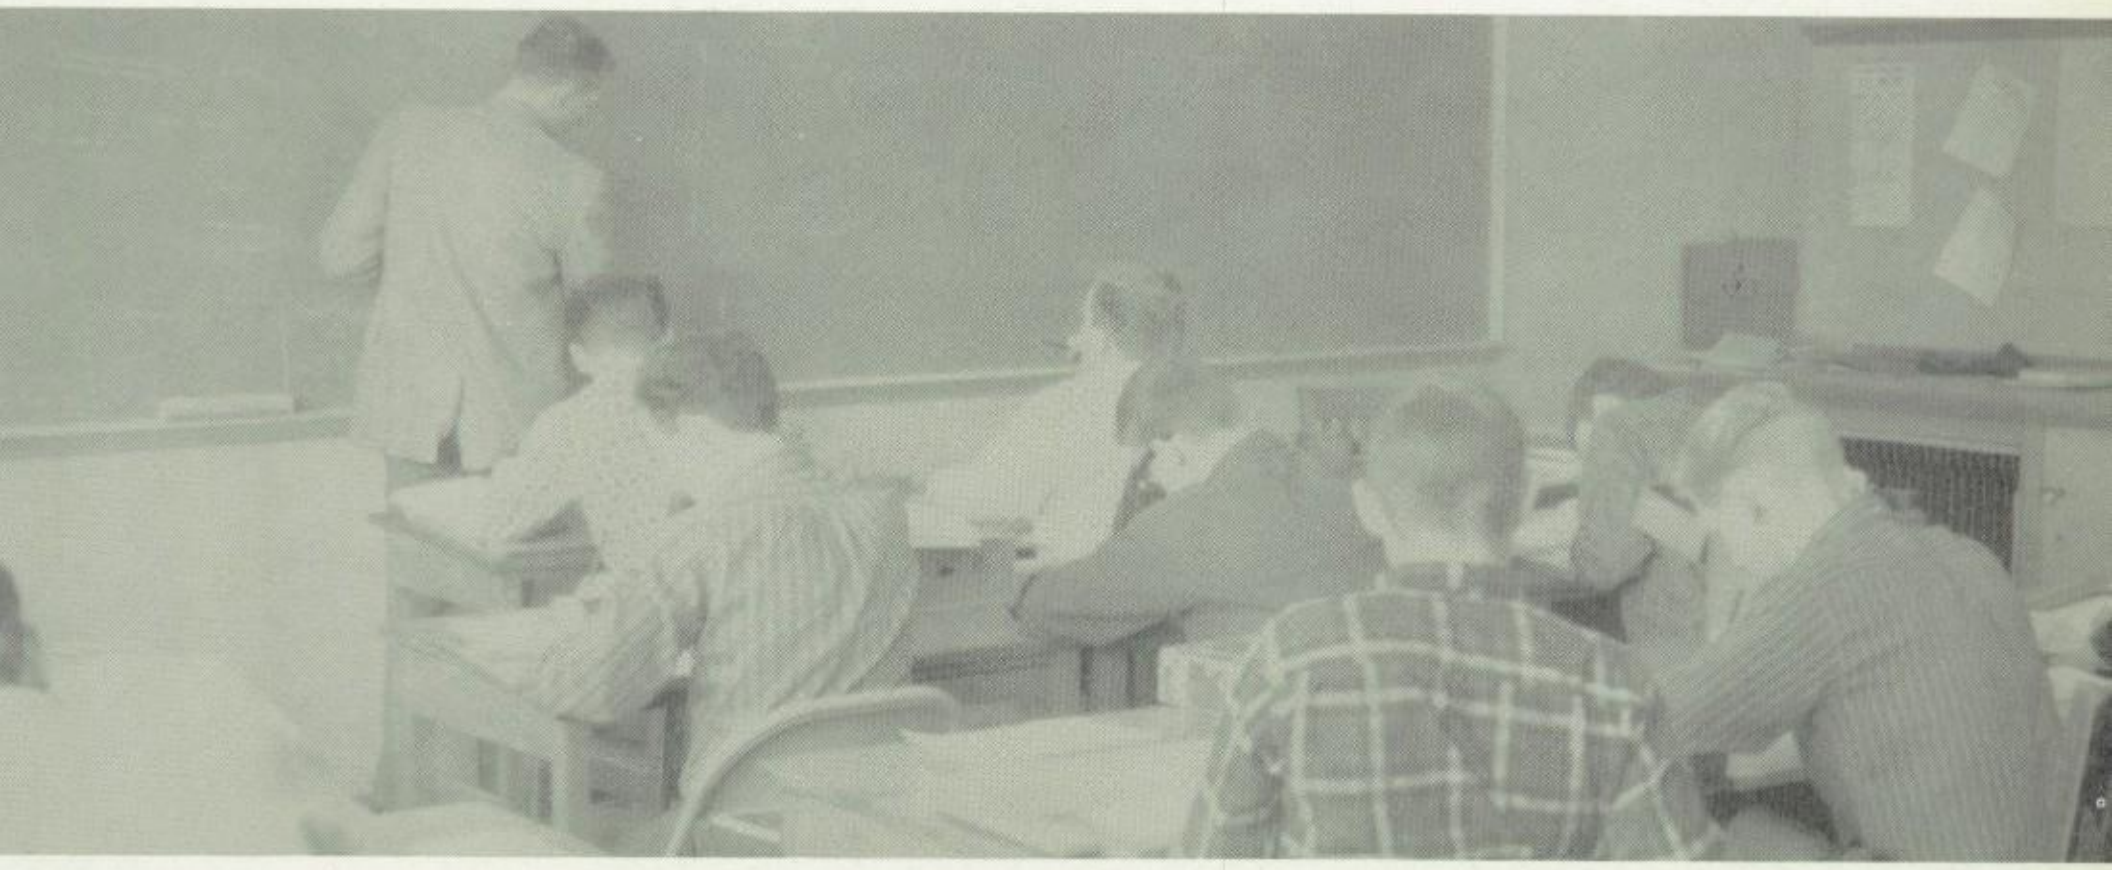
Mr. Fleming explains the details of the drill press to a group of sophomore boys.

Senior Steve Curvall flexes his muscles as he prepares to bend a piece of metal on an anvil.

FOR FUTURE OCCUPATIONS



The tools of the draftsman's trade are known to every student of mechanical drawing.



Most of the time in mechanical drawing class is spent at the drawing board, pencil in hand.

Mike Roe, Dennis Kelley, Charles Adcock, and Larry Weaver seem very engrossed in Mr. Sands' explanation of the electric drill.

ART PROMOTES APPRECIATION

Concord's modern art department performs a wide variety of artistic feats. Under the direction of Roy Rankin, senior high art students study techniques to improve upon their natural abilities as artists. TOP LEFT: Carolyn Emmons has learned that oil painting requires a steady hand and a patient mind. RIGHT: Ronnie Green is engrossed in his sculptery. BOTTOM LEFT: Junior High students admire the unusual decorative piece held by Mr. Rankin. RIGHT: The Art Department furnished Santa and his sleigh for the school's Christmas decoration.

FOR THE FINER THINGS IN LIFE

Members of this junior high art class attempt to capture the beauty of Concord's campus before the winter's snow and ice cover the ground.

r. Roth instructs junior high students in the finer points artistic achievement.

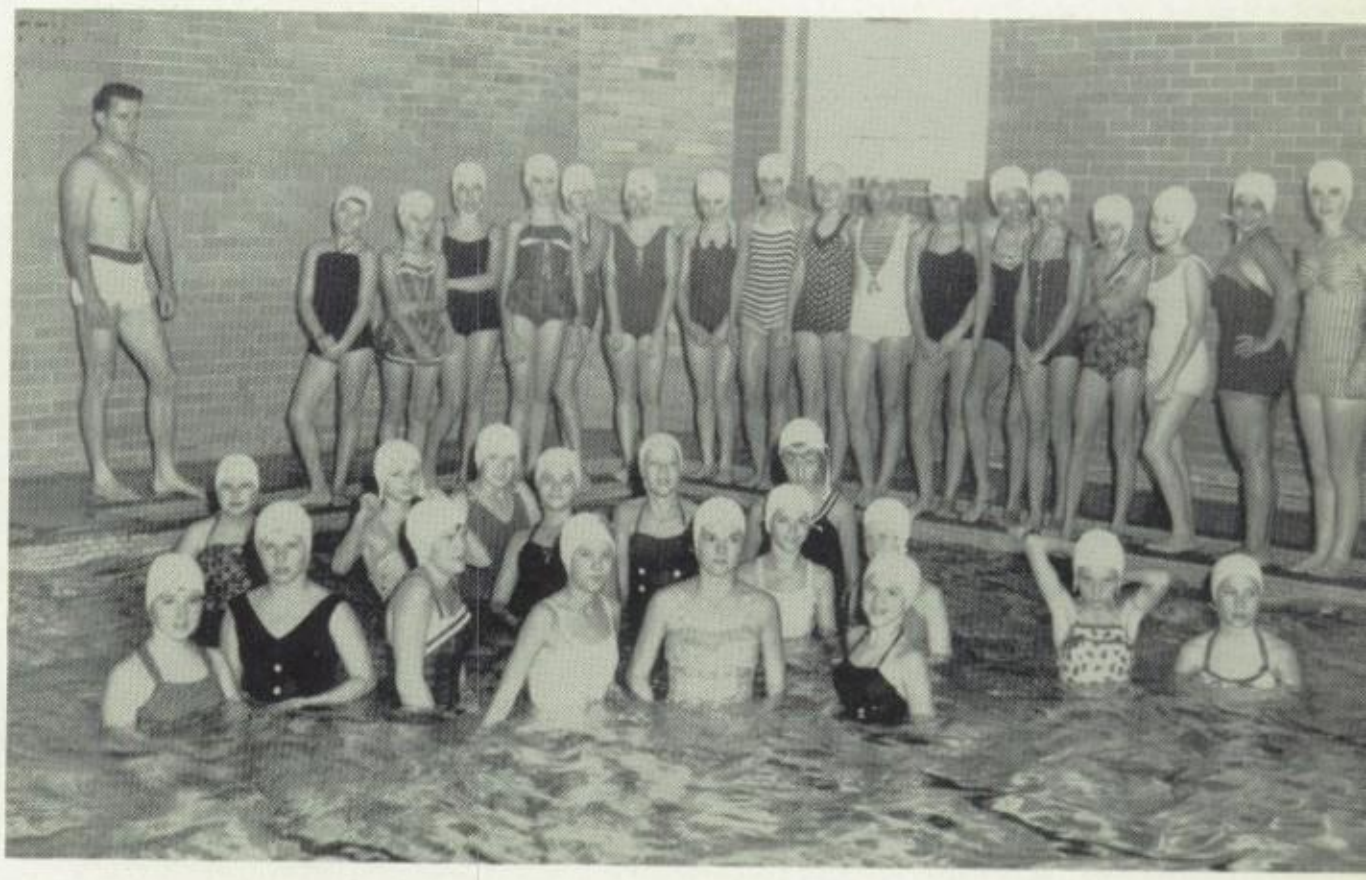
Larry Reeves, Jack Wise, Dave Baldwin, and Ricky Truex were the four senior boys to play on Concord's first football team.

Here several of the members of Concord's squad demonstrate an offensive for mation during practice.

VARIETY ADDS SPICE TO OUR SPORTS

Many students take advantage of our ice-skating rink during the cold winter months.



These girls were just a few that took me out from their noon hours to enjoy swimming at the Y.M.C.A. in Elkhart.

Four seniors are shown relaxing with a quick set of tennis.

Below: This is a picture of the junior high gymnastic class. In row one is Rich Fore, Denny Smit second row: Stanley Graber, Larry Tait, Dave Knisley, Mel Kauffman, Tom Blosser, and Mark Kiebe row three: Doug Krallman, Ron Alexander, Dennis Cannon, Gene Berger, Dave Sharkey, Roger Lyo Bob Price, and Steve Bowser.

Lester McCuen, known to his many friends as "Mac", assumed the duties of Concord's athletic director this year. Mr. McCuen has seen most of Concord's athletic history take place in his 23 years as a member of this school's faculty, including 22 years on the coaching staff. He coached the phenomenal 1949 basketball team to victory at the sectional, and knows more statistics concerning Concord's teams than any other person in the county.

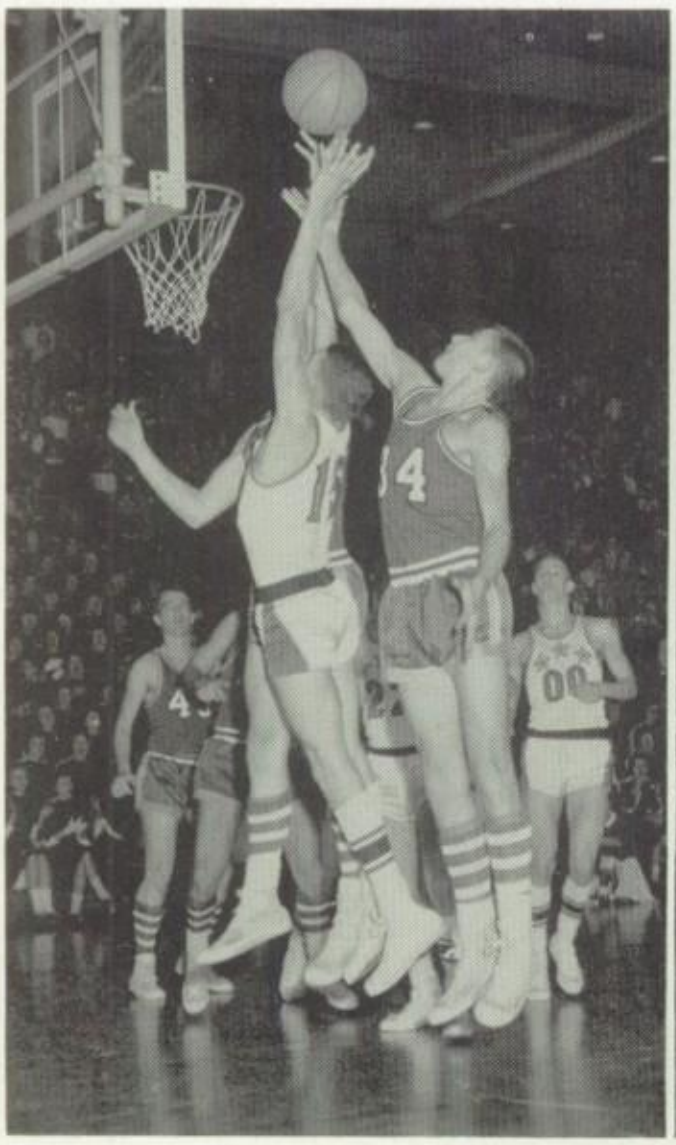
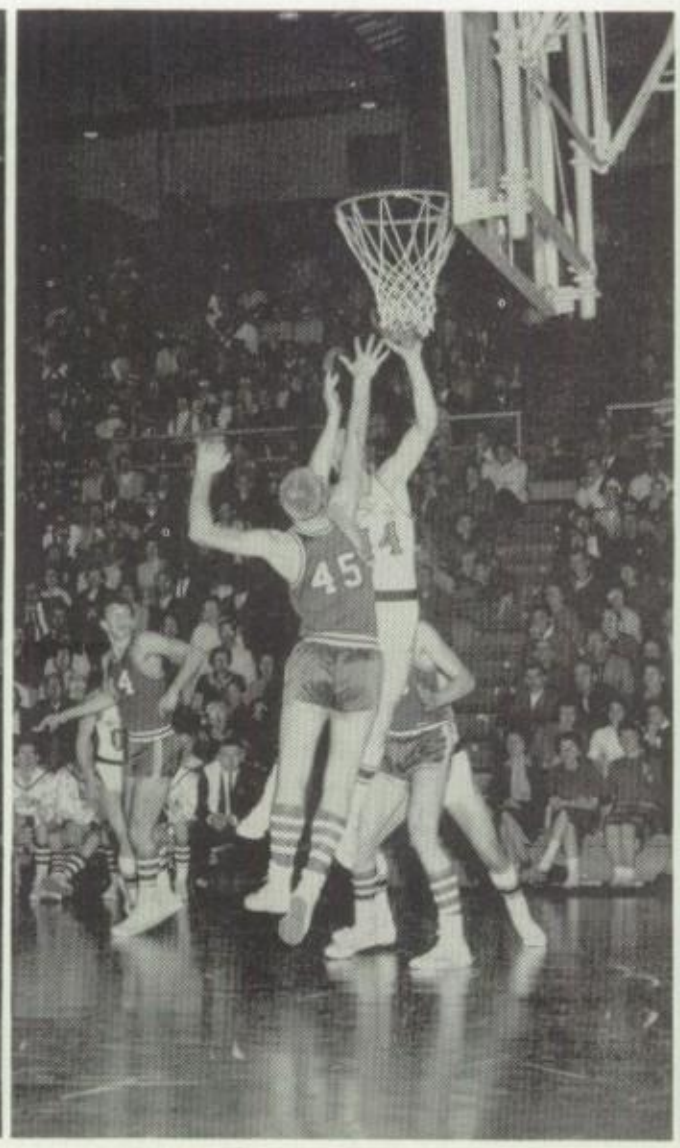
VICTORY ! VICTORY !

Above: Ron Iwema scores another one as he got 22 points in the Goshen game.
Left: Which one will get it?

These pictures prove that a lot of action goes on beneath the baskets.





THAT'S OUR CRY !

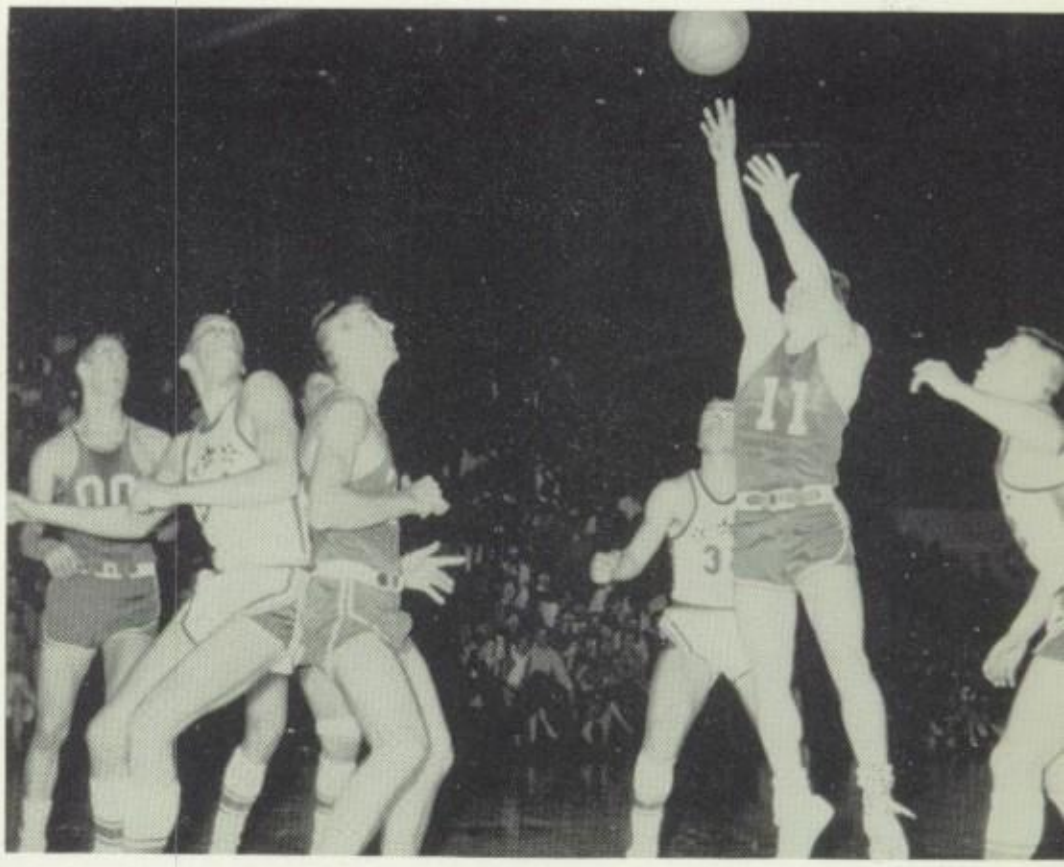
SECTIONAL TOURNEY



im Croy sinks another basket during the Concord-Elkhart game in the Sectional. Jim was leading scorer for the game with 20 points but was followed closely by Ron Iwema and Steve Hoogenboom who each had 18 points.

Concord defeated Nappanee 86-50 in Concord's second game of the Sectional. Steve Hoogenboom and Ned Kauffman are shown here in action during the game.

Francis Novotny, Ann Holdeman, and Pam Murray seem to be showing the same sentiments of hope that most of the Concord fans felt before losing to Elkhart 60-63.

The members of the "b" team are: Larry Mann, Dennis Jones, Dennis Blocher, Steve Jarrett, Tom Heerschop, Bob Hershberger, Steve Seward, Bob Fink, Herb Polmateer, Chuck Youngman, Dennis Sharkey, and Kenny Carner. In front: Jeffry Burke, Coach Hoogenboom and Larry Conrad.

Mr. Hoogenboom gives instructions to the team at a decisive moment in one of the B team games.

LEFT: Here both teams clash together to bring the ball down. The players shown are Bob Eaton, Steve Jarrett, and Tom Essig.

JUNIOR HIGH

BASKETBALL

Mr. Harmeson and his seventh grade minutemen pose for the photographer. The boys on this team are from left to right, front row, Mr. Harmeson, Larry Laughman, Ricky Miller, David Christenson, Bob Bienz, David Jarrett, Fred Humphrey, John Stauffer; back row, Marvin Roush, Jeff Myers, Terry Jenkins, Dallas Reynolds, Gary Elliot, Tom Heeter, Russell Teal, Dennis Eller, and Bill Slabaugh.

This seventh grade starting lineup sparked the team to many victories. They are David Jarrett, Bob Bienz, David Christenson, Ricky Miller, Larry Laughman, and Coach Harmeson.

Here the team gets final instructions before defeating Goshen.

The job of administrator of a school system such as the Concord Metropolitan school district is a challenge which Superintendent Arthur O. Weddell handles efficiently. His responsibilities include the hiring of the best teachers possible, as well as other school personnel. He works very closely with the school board. This is his second year at Concord.

Mr. Weddell is shown presenting the new South Side School's First Class Commission to the school board.

The members of the board are Kenneth Weeber, Willis Hershberger, Dale Stauffer, Lynn Swinehart, and Paul Northam.

PRINCIPAL'S

MR. WILLIAM HENRY REEVES & MR. ETHAN GWALTNEY

A school is only as good as the faculty and the administrators; therefore, we feel that Concord is one of the best. Mr. William Henry Reeves, our new principal, and Mr. Ethan Gwaltney, his assistant, are kept busy running the school smoothly and efficiently.

Since the teachers' "Happy Carefree Daze" would probably refer to the time spent away from school, their hobbies are included along with their pictures.

When he isn't at school, Mr. Reeves likes all sports, woodworking, and reading good books. He is a sponsor of the Student Council.

Mr. Gwaltney enjoys gardening and painting.

SECRETARIES

Kathryn Anderson is the secretary in the principal's office. Even though she doesn't have time for a hobby now she enjoys reading a good book, especially in the winter in front of the fireplace.

Ruth Scheidel and Rosella Lewallen are the secretaries in the Superintendent's office. Ruth Scheidel's duties are making up the Concord Metropolitan School District payroll for 117 regular employees and 13 students, ordering necessary supplies, and paying bills. Ruth's hobbies are traveling and sewing.

Rosella Lewallen's duty is bookkeeper for the 30 extra curricular accounts. Rosella's hobby is knitting.

Carolyn McCuen is the secretary in the Central Grade and Junior High School office. She is Lester McCuen's wife and her hobbies are going to the basketball and football games.

COUNSELORS

OUR COUNSELORS ARE HELPFUL AND FRIENDLY

Miss Boeldt is new at Concord this year. She spends most of her time counseling, but she also teaches personal typing and general business.

Mr. Simmons is a full time counselor. He also has charge of the testing program of the whole Concord school system. He sponsors the Student Council, and his hobbies are photography and target shooting.

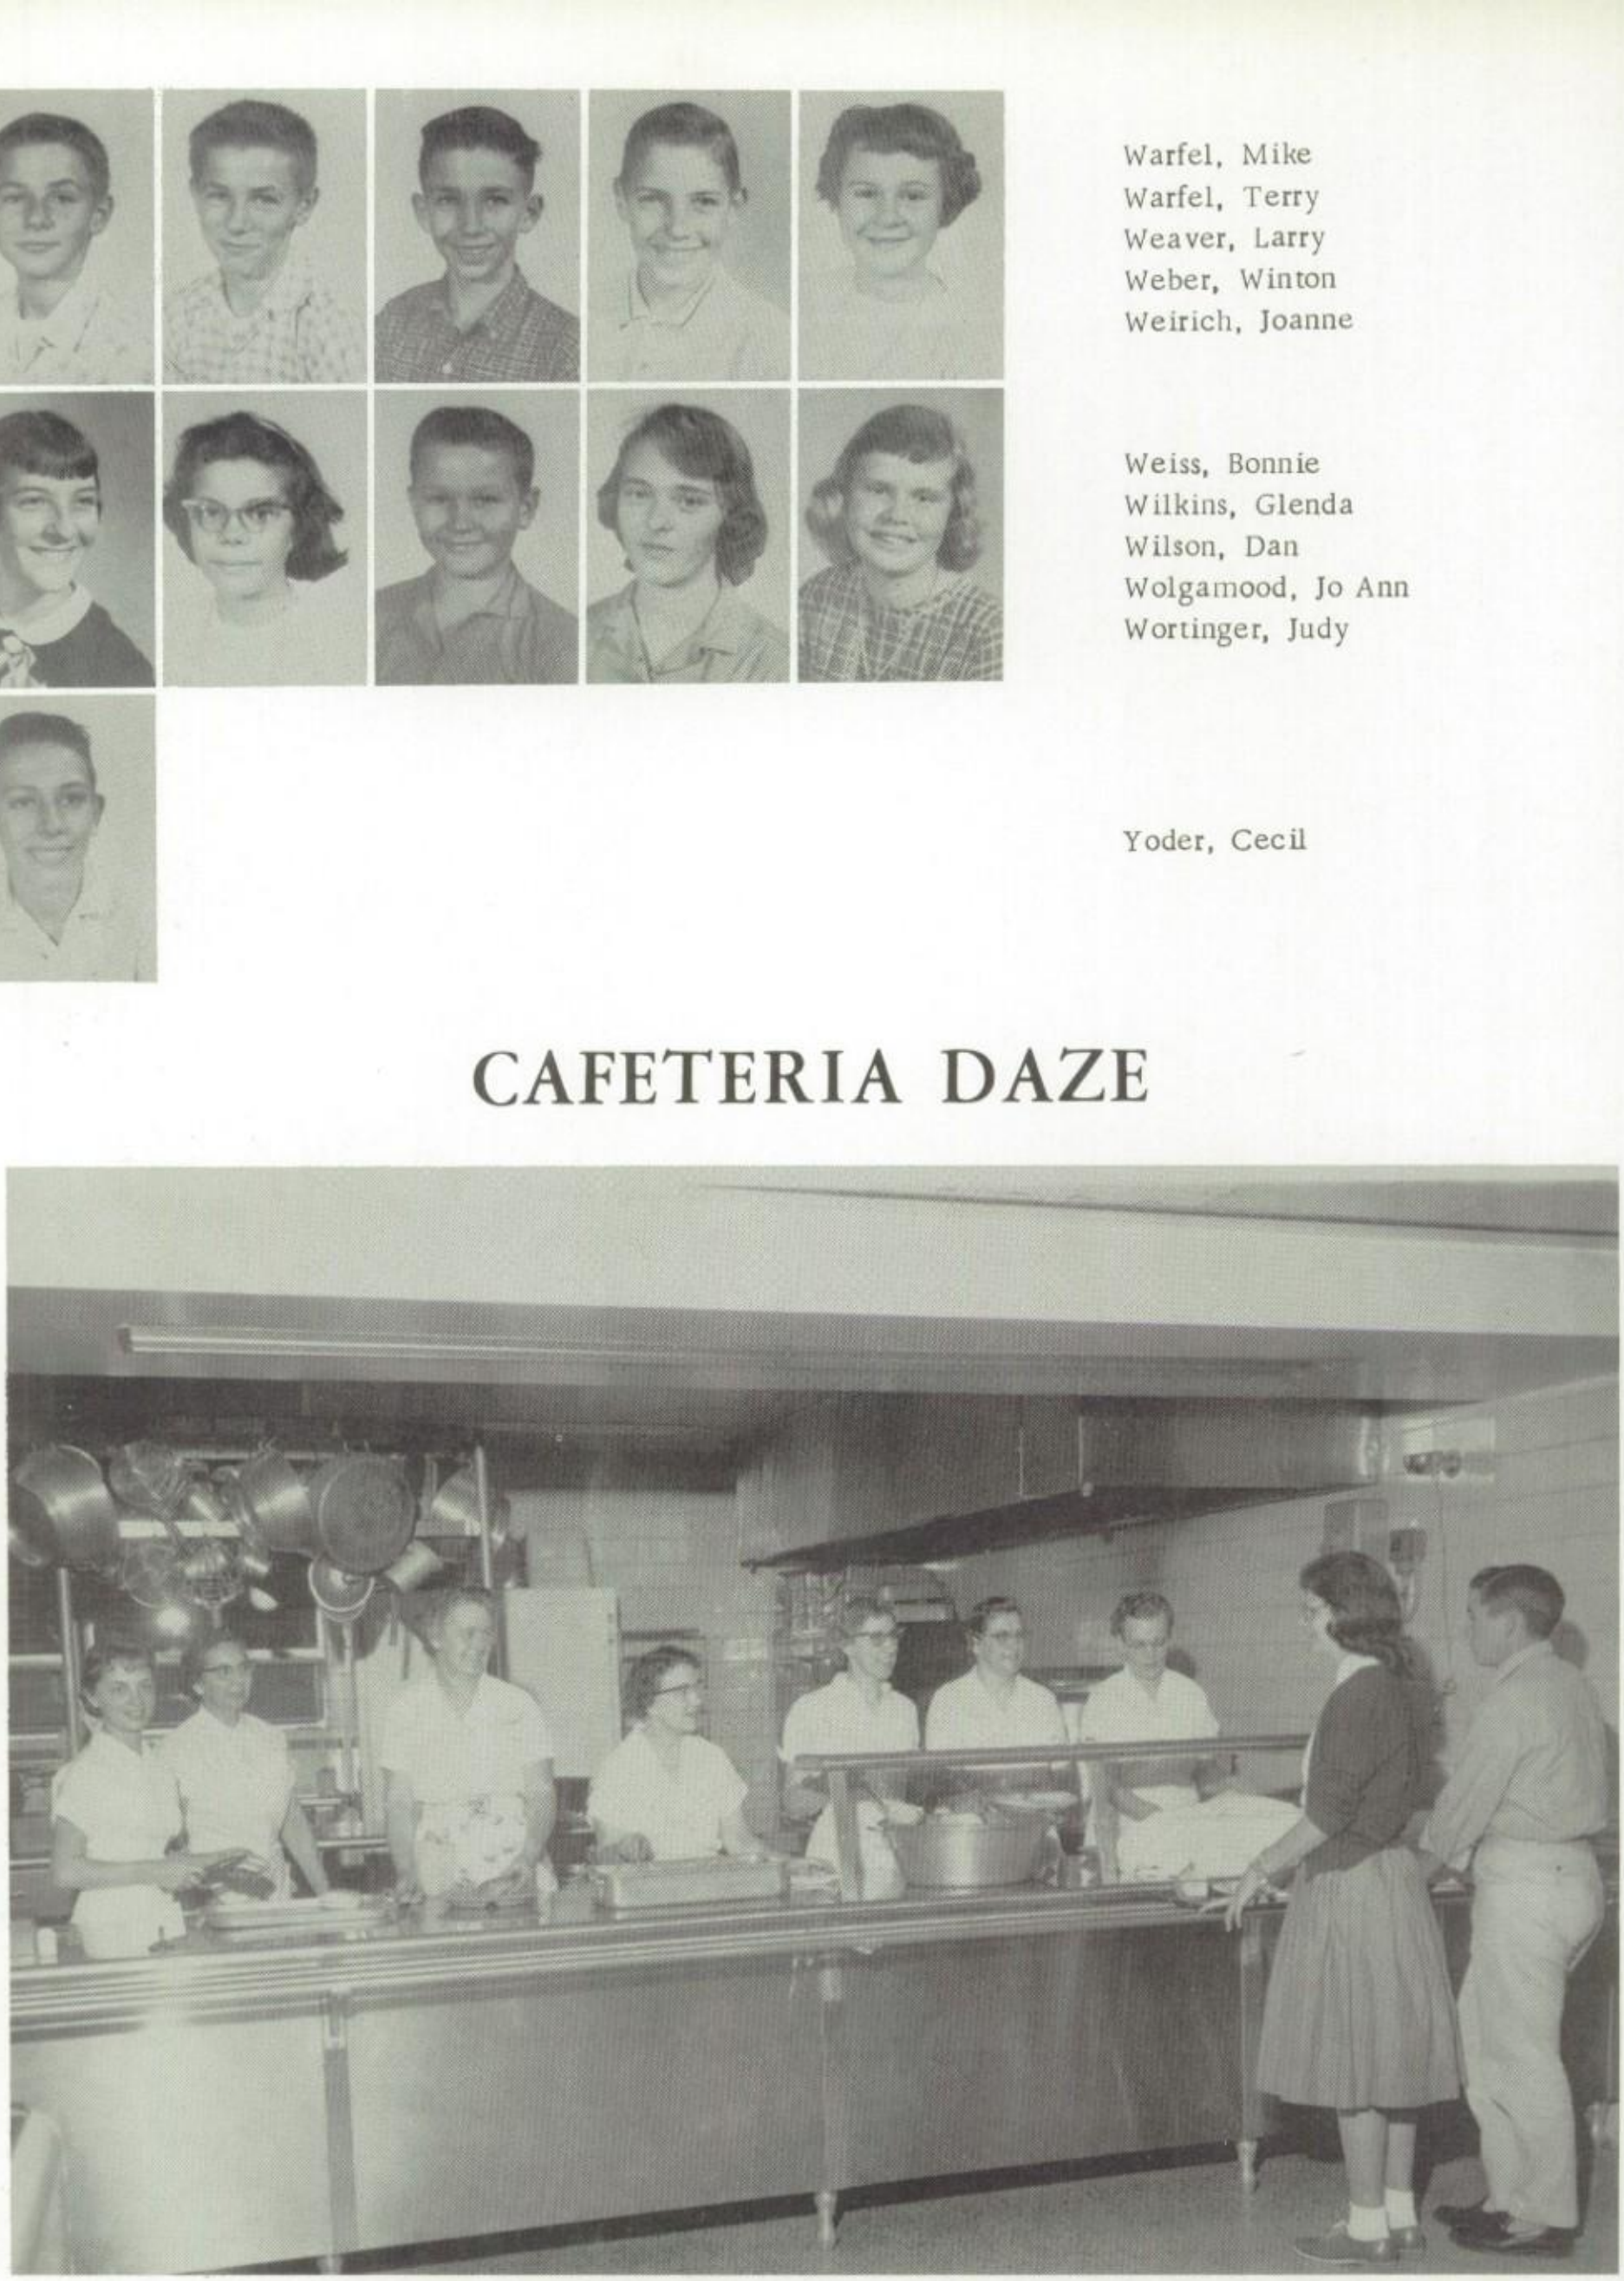
CAFETERIA DAZE

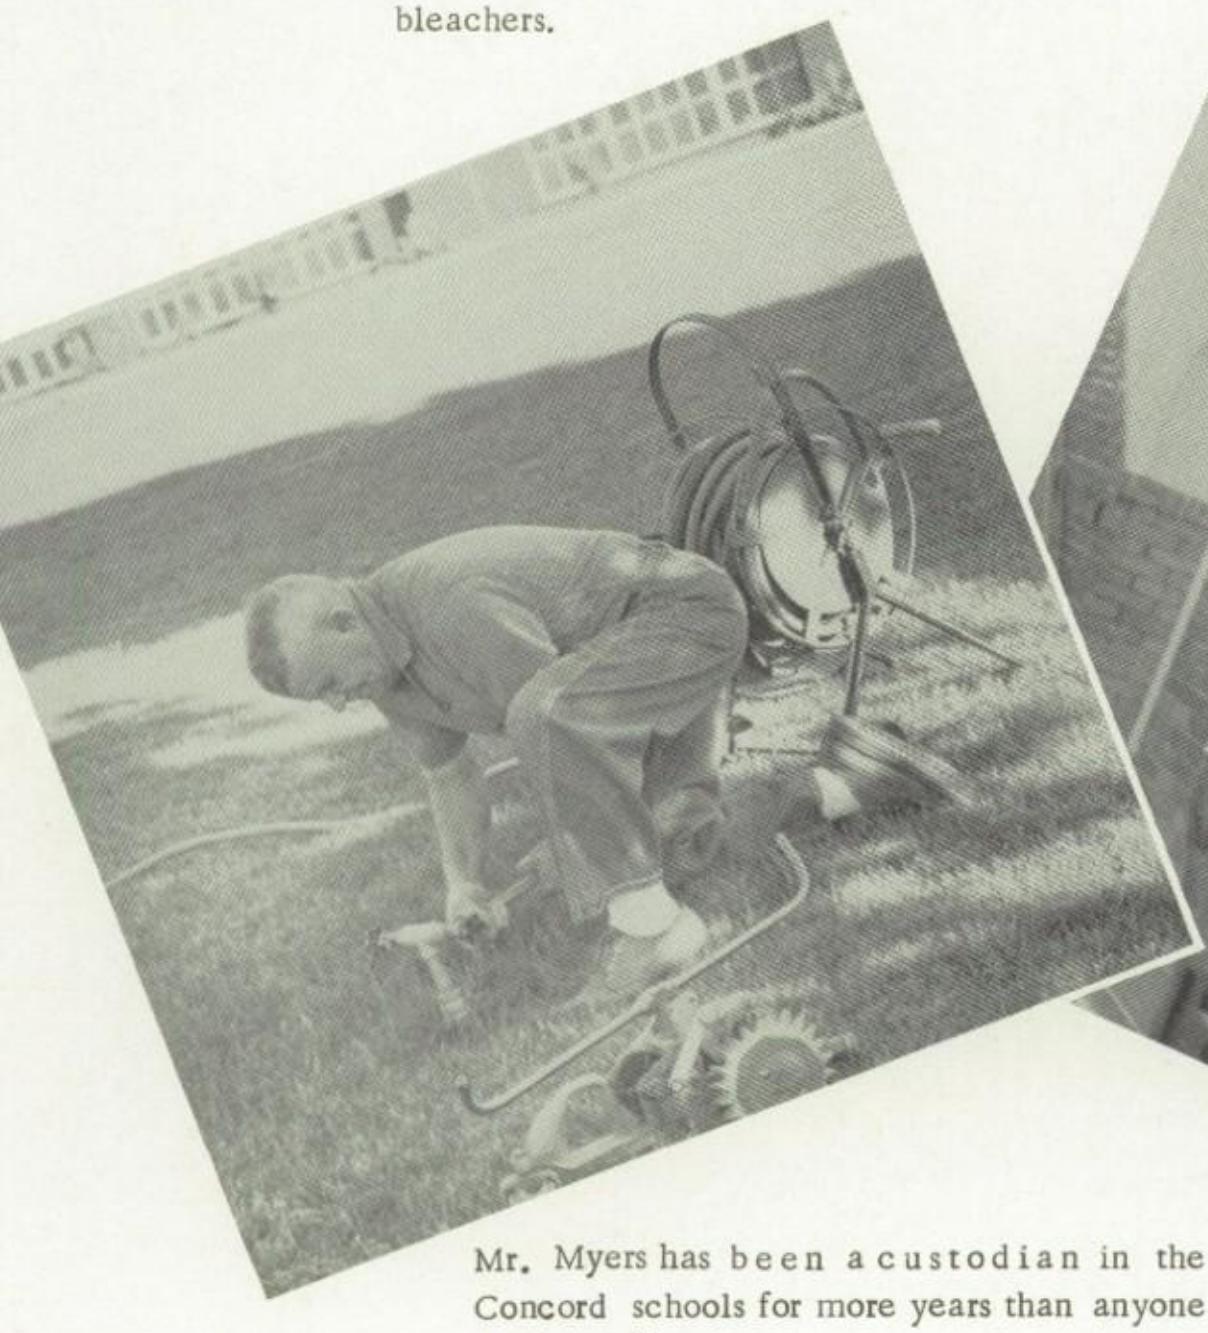


Tasty lunches are served by our happy, efficient staff of cooks. Ready to serve barbecues and all the trimmings are Barbara Watkins, Helen Myers, Millie Vollmar, Hazel Yonker, Ann Lovejoy, Mary Brown, and Helen Reed.

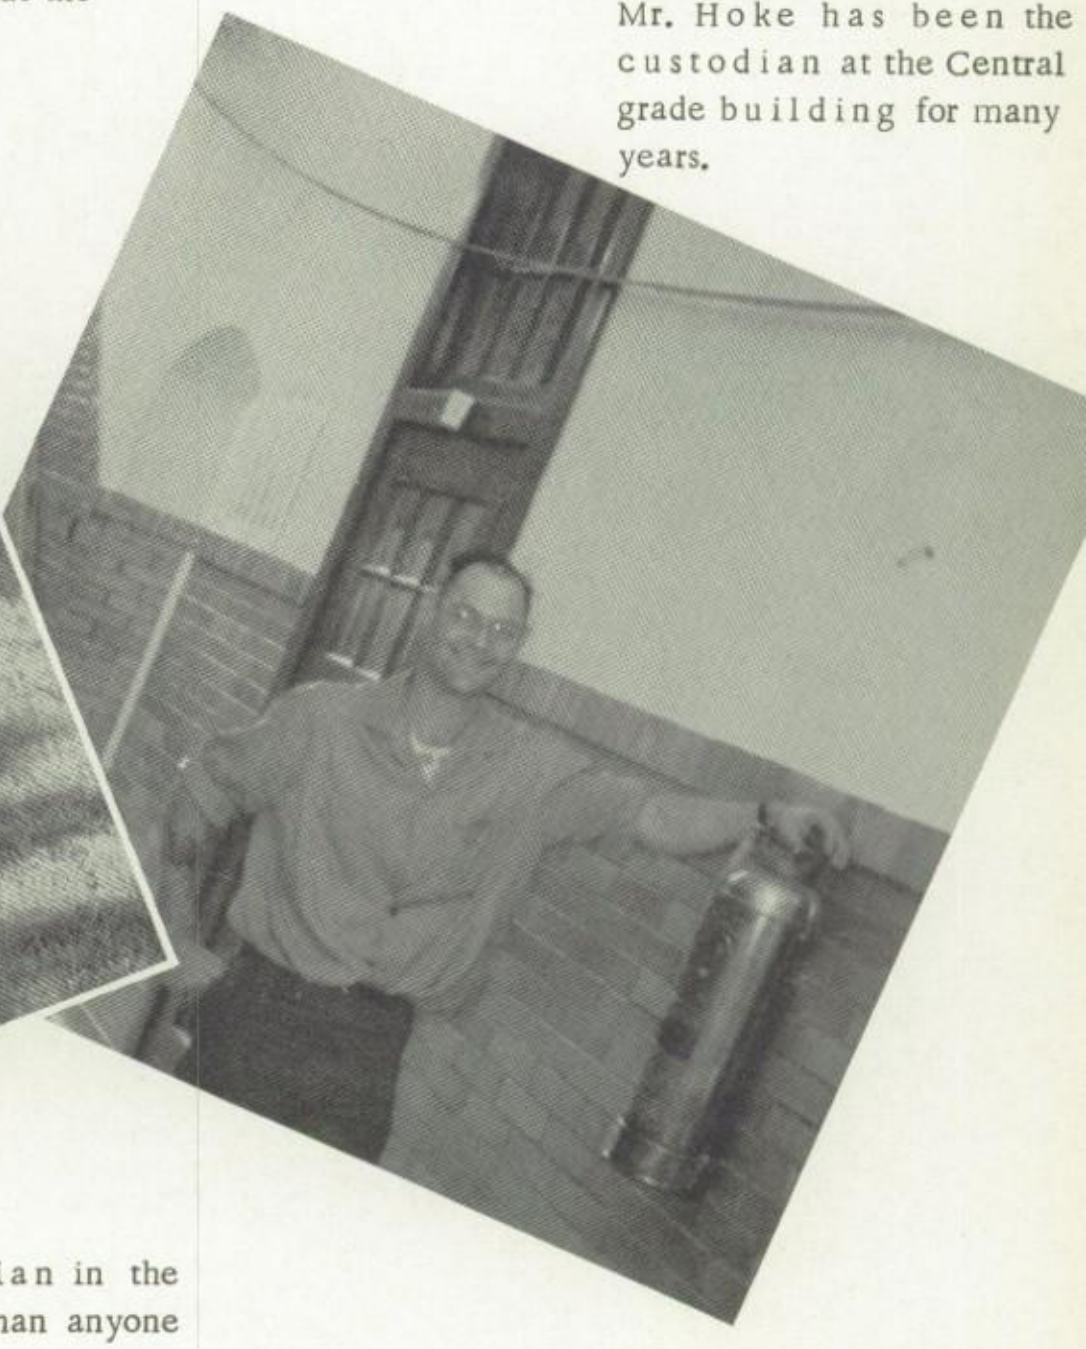
CUSTODIANS

Manford Nusbaum maintenance engineer and his helper Paul Frederick pull out the bleachers.

Mr. Hoke has been the custodian at the Central grade building for many years.



Mr. Myers has been a custodian in the Concord schools for more years than anyone on the staff.



Mr. Tait is in his second year.

Wayne Hoffman, Manford Metzler, Lewis Stark, Ivan Overholser, Dan Stutsman, Robert Hoffman, and Dwight Roush.

Our bus drivers operate on a split second schedule this year, since grade school students and high school students are now transported separately.

Lowell Stickel, Forrest Shupert, Lamar Stickel, Ralph Stutsman, Ledger Kauffman, Ben Stutsman, Henry Roush, and Lester Kline.

AND NOW A FEW WORD$ FROM OUR PONOR$....

Without the help of the advertisers, we would have been unable to publish this CONCORDIAN.

RESULTS AND ROSES

"The man who wants a garden fair,
Or small or very big
With flowers growing here and there,
Must bend his back and dig.

The things are mighty few on earth
That wishes can attain;
What'ere we want of any worth
We've got to work to gain.

It matters not what goal you seek;
Its secret here reposes;
You've got to dig from week to week
To get results or roses."

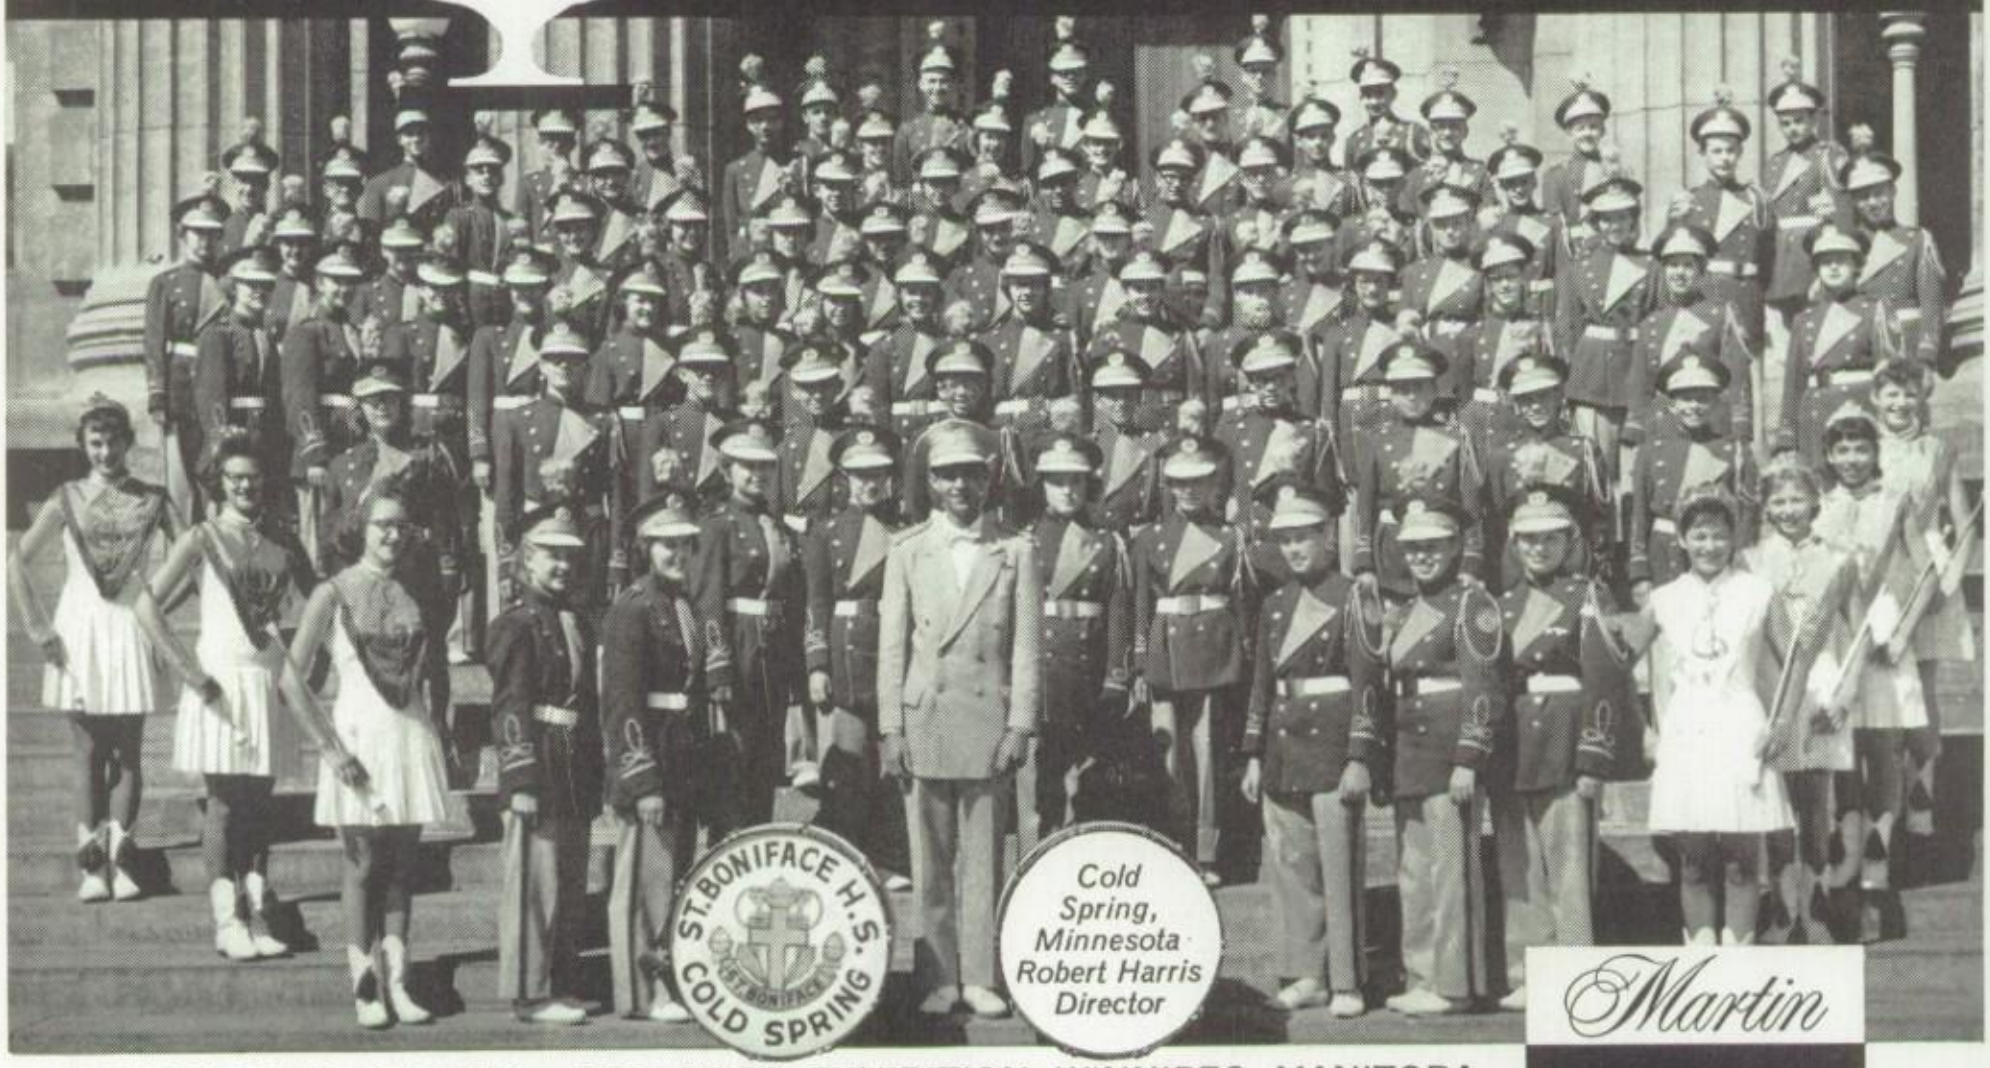
More than 90% of their instruments are Martin and Pedler



AMERICAN BAND CHAMPS—RED RIVER EXHIBITION, WINNIPEG, MANITOBA

The well filled trophy cabinet at St. Boniface High School in Cold Spring, Minnesota attests to the award winning ability of this fine high school band under the direction of Robert Harris. Martin is proud, too, that more than 90% Martin and Pedler instruments are used by these students.
